CONTENTS OF THE FIRST PART

OF 1838.

PAGE

Address i

ORIGINAL PAPERS.

The Gurney Papers. Nos. XIII., XIV., XV., XVI. By the Author of "Sayings and Doings," &c. . . . 1, 145, 289, 433

Life in the East. No. III. By M. J. Quin, Esq. . . . 18

Chigwell Revisited. By one of the Authors of "Rejected Addresses" 26

The Phantom Ship. By Captain Marryat, C.B. . . 27, 225

Female Portrait Gallery, from Sir Walter Scott. No. I.—Flora McIvor, and Rose Bradwardine. No. II.—Constance. No. III.—Alice Lee. By Miss Landon . . . 35, 183, 480

Our Winter Wants. By Isabel Hill 39

Pineapple Lodge. By Francis Græme 40

Reminiscences; or, a Page from the Book of Life . . 48, 190

Song, "The Gipsy's Fountain" 57

The Great Western Jungle. By an Old Forest Ranger . . 58

The Manager's Note Book. Nos. III., IV., V., VI. . 65, 213, 379, 523

The English Ship by Moonlight. By Eliza Cook . . . 80

The Man who always ate Stale Bread 81

Recreations in Natural History. No. VI.—Monkeys of the Old Continent, &c. 88

Letters from Ireland. By John Carne, Esq. Nos. III., IV. . 100, 315

A Classical Walk 108

Education for the Upper Classes 109

Peeping Tom of Coventry and the Lady Godiva. By Leman Rede, Esq. 115

The American Indian 119, 339

New Year's Day. By Alfred Crowquill 128

The Diving-Bell. Nos. II., III.—Captain Falconer . . 162, 306

Thou canst not forget me! 173

Some Passages in the Life of Major Gahagan . . . 174

Trade-itional Confessions. No. I.—The Pawnbroker . . 199

A Tale of a Vulture. By Benson Hill, Esq. 244

Stanzas, by ✠ 250

PAGE
Little Pedlington in a Pucker. By the Author of "Paul Pry," &c. 251
Choice of a Bride. By Francis Græme 265
The "Genteel Pigeons." A Household Story. By Douglas Jerrold, Esq. 321
Thoughts on my Birth-Day 338
Baron Geramb's Pilgrimage to Jerusalem 351
A Lyric of Love. By Mrs. C. Baron Wilson 355
Confessions and Opinions of Ralph Restless. By Capt. Marryat, C.B. 356
A French Opinion of the Drama 363
A Long While Ago. By Miss Landon 372
Historical Recollections of Major Gahagan 374
"Because!" Stanzas 388
The Young Philanthropist and the Old Brute. By J. B. Buckstone, Esq. 389
A Discourse of Bores. By John Poole, Esq. 396, 551
Consolatory Address to Mr. Murphy, the Weather-Prophet . . . 404
The late John Reeve. By Leman Rede, Esq. 405
Papers of a "Gentleman-at-Arms." Edited by Henry Brownrigg, Esq. No. I. 411
My Spanish Seal. By Louisa H. Sheridan 446
"Life let us Cherish;" or, the Long and the Short of it . . . 447
Old Madelaine. By Mrs. S. C. Hall 453
Lines, by Captain Marryat, C.B. 462
The Romance of a Key-Hole. By Douglas Jerrold, Esq. . . . 463
My First Visit to Brussels. By T. C. Grattan, Esq. . . . 486
Leaves from Mr. Keeley's Log 496
The Sense of Beauty. By the Hon. Mrs. Norton 504
Summer in India. By Captain Westmacott 507
Memoir of Captain Chamier, R.N. (With a Portrait) . . . 508
Wedding Tactics. By Dr. Litchfield 511
Fragments from the Personal History of A. Wag . . . 542
A Legend of a Committee of Paviours 562
The Conversazione on the Literature of the Month . 129, 276, 420, 566